Silk

This series is inspired by ancient silk. The twisted orange-red lines intersect and hover on the tableware, expresses the lightness and beauty of silk, reminiscent of the scene of silk fluttering in the wind. And the edge of this series is outlined in rose gold, which is more elegant and high-end.

Snowflake

Snowflake

The white and silver-gray patterns are interlaced and coiled into the shape of a sharp petal, reminiscent of the white and light snowflakes in winter. The patterns continue to form repeated patterns, and the repeated patterns form this "snowflake", which makes people feel comfortable and peaceful. The embossed pattern with pearls and the silver strokes on the edges of the tableware add richer layers to the peaceful and pure tableware.

Flower's Carol

Flower's Carol

The shapes of flowers, branches and leaves are simplified into golden brown patterns, which are irregularly distributed on the tableware, either contrasting with the pure white background, or setting off with carmine red or dark green. The patterns seem to flow freely on the tableware, changing into rich floral presentations which are so graceful and beautiful that like the carol for flowers, full of surprises.
